RIVER NORTH

- Opportunity to help define the emerging Wells Street corridor at the base of Marlowe, a luxurious mixed-use development offering 176 residential units.
- River North is one of the premier neighborhoods that make up the north side community of downtown Chicago.
- River North has established itself as one of the city's most sought after places to live, with multiple new residential high-rise developments commanding the highest rents in Chicago, mainly due to its proximity to The Loop and Chicago's Lakeshore.
- With a surge of residential development over the past 10 years, the population has significantly increased, making River North a true seven-day-per-week market.
